All-season floor mats

The hardwearing all-season mats help protect the interior when the weather is rainy, when there's slush underfoot and when shoes are muddy. Their precision fit provides optimum protection for the original floor covering and the raised edge prevents liquid from seeping onto the floor. The material is easy-clean and waterproof.

Truck bed cover/bed liner, Kit.

The weather-resistant bed liner provides effective protection for the bed from paint damage. The black liner, which is exactly adapted to the bed, is made from plastic and runs below the load compartment sill. This means that it is compatible with the bed covers, the lashing rails and the load anchoring rail system at the side panels.

A470 851 1500

€ 263.00*

Anchoring rail.

The bed lashing rails consist of 4 load anchoring rails which are attached to the floor of the bed and make it possible to secure loads in accordance with the regulations. Thanks to a high maximum traction of 400 daN (kg), even heavy loads can be fixed in this way. The scope of the equipment includes 4 removable lashing eyes with stainless steel rings.
